9th – 10th October 2019

Intraoperative Neuromonitoring
Course & Workshop

INVITATION

www.arkana-forum.com

Dear doctors and medical staff,

We are pleased to invite you the first Scandinavian IONM course 2019 organized by inomed Medizintechnik GmbH with a focus on cortical mapping techniques.

Whether already experienced in IONM and interested in improving skills, or completely new to IONM, this course is designed for all levels.

A broad mix of lectures ranging from basics to advanced mapping techniques given by renowned experts from the field, discussions, and case studies guarantees an exceptional learning experience. Additionally, you will have the opportunity to get to know the latest systems and accessories in dedicated hands-on sessions.

We look forward to welcoming you in Gothenburg. We are sure that not only the detailed insight into the latest methods of IONM, but also opportunities for networking will leave a lasting impression.

Yours sincerely

Ruediger Ott
CEO/Managing Director
